THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford car can well be called the "peoples car," because there are more than 3,000,000 of them in daily operation. That is about four to one to the nearest follower in the motor car industry. This would not be so if the Ford car had not for sixteen years proven its superiority in service, in durability, and in the low cost for operation and maintenance; this would not be so if the Ford car was not so easy to understand, so simple in construction that anybody and everybody can safely drive it. It is everybody's necessity because it doubles the value of time, and is the quick, convenient, comfortable, and economical method of transportation. We solicit your order. We have the full line, Touring Car, Runabout, Coupe, Sedan, Truck. We assure you the best possible in repair work with the genuine Ford Parts.

Cash Out for Corporation Commissioner

T. D. Cashel, of Phoenix, who elsewhere in this issue formally announces his candidacy for the office of corporation commissioner, has been the rate expert and special transportation attorney of the Arizona Corporation Commission for nearly four years.

He has had twenty years of actual experience in rate making and for eight years superintended the compilation of all tariffs published by the Southwestern Freight Tariff Bureau.

He compiled for the use of the chief traffic officers of the Southwestern Lines a compendium, or hand book, showing the bases upon which all rates to and from the Southwest are constructed and the percentage or differential relationship which such rates bear to rates in other traffic territories.

He helped to formulate the rules which the Interstate Commerce Commission and various State commissions have adopted for the simplification of tariffs and is a recognized authority on the subject of tariff construction and interpretation.

He has made a close study of State and Federal Statutes pertaining to public utilities and is thoroughly familiar with the principles which have guided and actuated the Interstate Commerce Commission and the courts of last resort in their determinations of the many and various questions involving the rights and duties of common carriers.

Being admirably fitted by training and experience for the office to which he aspires, the people, in the event of his election, are assured of an exceedingly capable and efficient administration.

Mr. Cashel was born at Corry, Pennsylvania, April 23, 1883; was educated in the public schools of East St. Louis, Ill., and studied law at Northwestern University. Although he can count but five years residence in Arizona, he is essentially a westerner and enjoys the unique distinction of having been an Alaskan pioneer and the first mayor of Nome.

Index to Farish Arizona History

A combined index to Farish's Arizona History has been compiled by Jas. H. McClintock, State Historian, a copy of which will be furnished to every one who has one or more volumes of the History.

This work has been done, to a degree, as a memorial to Mr. Farish. Each of his books was of individual issuance, to an extent independent of the others, and as the material was not presented in chronological sequence, naturally there was separate indexing of each volume. Now, as death has concluded the labors of the author, it appears clear that there should be made available a full listing of the contents of all the volumes officially published by him.

It is hoped that this compilation will be found of value to the owners of the publication and of assistance to the students of Arizona history.

Copies of the Index can be secured by writing Jas. H. McClintock, State Historian, Phoenix, Arizona.

Mrs. Linda Harrod Endorses Chamberlain's Tablets

"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and tried everything I heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary, until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them from our druggist. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness and pain in the stomach after eating. Since taking two bottles I can eat anything I want without distress," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Ft.
